Students interested in one hour of course credit may attend the Illinois Reading Council Conference (IRC) in Springfield, March 15-17 and complete the requirements of this course. The purpose of this course is to generate, develop, share, and implement creative teaching ideas as students apply what they learn in the conference sessions to their specific teaching situations. This course will also enhance the conference experience.

Course Location:

The IRC conference will be held at the Convention Center in Springfield, Illinois and adjacent hotels.

Course Requirements:

1. Upon sending registration for the course, participants will receive a course syllabus, an electronic log, and a collection of articles.
2. Readings: Prior to the conference, participants will select and read a focus article and write a brief (30 word) reaction to the article. (1 hour)
Participants will also read a trade book, fiction or nonfiction or picture book by a conference author, and compose a brief summary (30 words) of the book.
2. Attendance: Participants attend 15 hours of conference activities including visiting the exhibits.
3. Reflective Log: Participants will complete a reflective log documenting their participation at each session they attend.
4. Project: Students will develop a unit based on conference learning.
