

Are you overwhelmed with guidelines, standards, and new initiatives?

You are not alone!

We are all affected by these new standards.

Come to learn what they are and practical ways to craft your teaching to meet them!

Chicago Area Reading Association and the Alumni of the Graduate Program in Reading of Northeastern Illinois University invite you to a morning with

Laura Beltchenko

Common Core Standards: Knowing, Understanding, Doing

Laura Beltchenko is Associate Superintendent of Curriculum, Wauconda Community Unit School District and a member of the Illinois Common Core Task Force of ISBE.

Getting to the University

The campus is in close proximity to main roads, expressways, and rapid transit. Located at 5500 North St. Louis Avenue, it is bordered by Bryn Mawr (5600 N) on the north, Foster (5200 N) on the south, Kimball (3400 W) on the east, and Pulaski (4000 W) on the west. From Chicago's Loop, take the Kennedy (I-90/94) north, merge with the Edens Expressway (I-94) and go north; exit at Peterson to Pulaski, south on Pulaski to Bryn Mawr, and east on Bryn Mawr to the entrance to parking. From the east, take Lake Shore Drive south or north, exit at Foster and go west to Central Park, turn north into the main campus entrance.

Parking is provided in Lot F (Blue Arrow) and Lot D (Yellow Arrow). Enter the Fine Arts Building at the Orange Arrow and follow the signs to Alumni Hall for Breakfast and Registration.

Continental Breakfast begins at 8:30 am in Alumni Hall located in the Student Union, marked with a light blue circle on the map.

Recital Hall is located in the Steinberg Fine Arts Building, marked with a bright pink circle on the map. If you need help with directions, please call the Department of Reading Office at 773/442-5361. We will have someone in the office the morning of the event to help you!
