

Join National Road Reading Council for

Guiding Readers by Interest, Not Level

Date: Tuesday, October 8

Time: 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Location: Central Grade School,
3901 S. Banker, Effingham, IL

Join National Road Reading Council as we watch and discuss a recorded webinar from the School Library Journal and literacy experts Fountas and Pinnell. "Reading is a highly complex activity. Readers must build strategies and create behaviors as they move to increasingly difficult texts. How can schools support this process and teach self-sufficiency as readers progress?"

1.5 hours of professional development available to attendees who attend the event.
