

Fall Author Visit:

Gary Moore

Wednesday evening

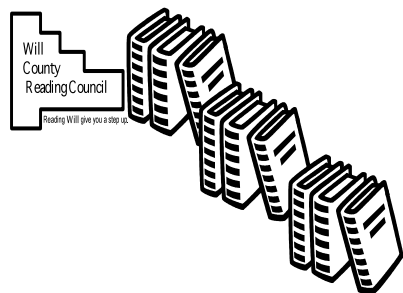

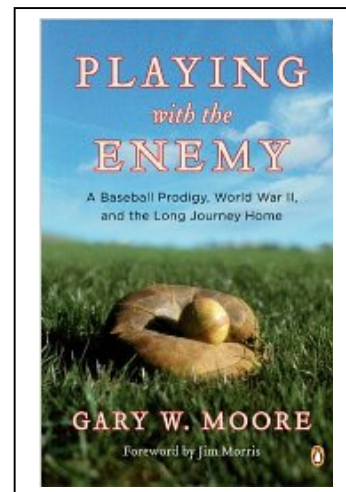

October 20, 2010

4:30 – 6:30 p.m.

Lewis University De LaSalle Room 250

No Admission fee!

Suggested admission donation: One gently used book to support school classroom libraries.

WCRC and Lewis University are pleased to welcome Gary Moore, author of Playing with the Enemy, a book about baseball, war, and family ties. Playing with the Enemy is currently in production as a motion picture. Gary Moore is currently working on his next book, Hey, Buddy! about singer Buddy Holly.

From www.playingwiththeenemy.com: Gary W. Moore is a successful entrepreneur and business executive, exciting speaker and sales trainer, musician and author. Dedicated to success through creativity, coupled with hard work, Gary is a diverse, multitalented professional with boundless energy. Gary is the author of the critically acclaimed book, Playing with the Enemy (winner of the 2006 Military Writers Society of America Book of the Year). Playing with the Enemy is currently being made into a major motion picture by Academy Award winning producer, Gerald Molen. Gary is also a contributing author for Chicken Soup for the Father & Son Soul.

*Gary Moore's visit is co-sponsored by the Lewis University College of Education
& Will County Reading Council*