

Fall Author Visit

Kelly Jensen

Wednesday, September 23, 2021
7:00 p.m. ♦ VIA ZOOM

Kelly Jensen is a former teen librarian who worked in several public libraries before pursuing a full-time career in writing and editing. Her current position is with Book Riot (bookriot.com), where she focuses on talking about young adult literature. Her books include Here We Are: Feminism for The Real World and (Don't) Call Me Crazy, a collection of art, essays, and words to launch a powerful and important conversation about mental health. It was named a best book of 2018 by the Washington Post and earned a Schneider Family Book Award Honor. Her latest book is Body Talk, published in Fall 2020, a collection of works representing a broad variety of perspectives on what it's like to live in our particular, unique bodies.

Register in advance to receive the ZOOM link:
<https://forms.gle/6SrUH2ft9CUhTtEX6>

The annual author visit is co-sponsored by the Lewis University Department of Education and Will County Reading Council.