

THE ILLINI & VERMILION VALLEY READING COUNCIL PRESENT

Cultivating a Comprehensive Literacy Approach: Nurturing the Reading-Writing Connection with Passion, Proficiency, AND Purpose with Love and Joy

Date: Saturday, February 7, 2026

Time: 10:30 AM - 12:00 PM

Location: Champaign Public Library

Robeson Room C - 1st floor
200 West Green Street
Champaign, IL 61820

SCAN ME

Presenter

Dr. Cindi Koudelka is a Curriculum Specialist with National Board Certification in Adolescent Young Adulthood/English Language Arts at Fieldcrest School District in Illinois and an Adjunct faculty member at Aurora University.

- ☐ Discover a holistic approach to literacy that unites reading and writing while nurturing a genuine love for both.
- ☐ Learn to integrate evidence-based, equitable strategies with engaging, student-centered experiences that inspire passion and purpose.
- ☐ Explore practical ways to build inclusive classrooms where every student feels valued as a reader and writer.
- ☐ Transform your literacy instruction by blending choice, voice, and inclusivity with systematic teaching that strengthens skills, deepens thinking, and fosters lifelong joy in literacy.

Audience: K - 12

Register Here

(Zoom access also available to registrants)

Illini & Vermilion are local councils of the state Organization, Illinois Reading Council (IRC). IRC is an organization that promotes literacy in all content areas for all ages. There are many, many benefits and resources available for its members.